Eco-Architectural Darkness Design & Pragmatism

PhD Julle Oksanen

Aalto University X-Group, Finland

We put effort and money to study external planets and solar systems, but we don't take care of our own planet. There are valuable research results of light pollution effects to the night time environment. We can achieve a lot by considering sustainable concepts in architectural lighting. Key words: Metaphors – Heuristics – Shadow, the best friend of light – The Law of The Pragmatic Truth – Approach in dark and light – Hopkinson's Ladders – Light hierarchy – Perception psychology – New paradigm and pragmatics.
